

TEACHER RECOMMENDATION FORM

This student is applying for the Summer Youth Internship Program. This position requires dedication and commitment to a full-time job during the summer. This student will be responsible for learning many new skills; working independently and showing great respect to his/her employers.

It is in the best interest of the students, the school, and the community, that a student, who takes part in cooperative education activities outside of the school, be perceived in a positive manner. When assessing the eligibility of a student for the summer youth internship program, it is important we feel confident putting them into this type of work environment. This information will form part of the basis on which the student's eligibility for this program will be determined.

Please indicate your perception of this student based on the following chart:

Poor 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 Excellent

- 1 Attitude
